

Hero MotoCorp is a multinational motorcycle and scooter manufacturer based in India. The company, formerly known as Hero Honda, started its operations in 1984 as a joint venture between Hero Cycles of India and Honda of Japan. Hero became the world's largest two-wheeler manufacturer in 2001, and has maintained the coveted title for the past 18 consecutive years. Hero MotoCorp currently has an annual production capacity of around 9 million units of two-wheelers, through its different manufacturing facilities across the globe. Hero Motor Bikes have a unique product range designed specifically for the African terrain, these come with carefully crafted features that are meant to suit customer expectations.
